DON'T DOUBT THE DREAM!

Join teacher, songwriter, and motivational trainer Jerry Mills for an unforgettable experience of sight, sound, song, and emotion as you journey into the stressful, confusing, and complex world of today's youth.

This dynamic, award-winning presentation provides skills we need to immediately begin making real changes in young people's lives. Focusing on practical insights and solutions to the challenges faced daily by educators, parents, and students, his programs sparkle with a mixture of research, media, heartrending stories, and music that communicate in a way no "speech" ever could.
